Dear Edna:

Now that the frantic activity of the campaign is over, I want to take this opportunity to personally thank you for all the time and energy you put forth in our re-election efforts.

No candidate has ever had more faithful and dedicated supporters than you the members of the Finance Committee. We were all tested when we were down in the polls by 40 percentage points and contributions were hard to come by. But our team stayed together -- our team rallied against the odds -- you buckled down and kept the money coming in. If sheer dedication and loyalty could have won this election there would have been no contest.

We started from behind in this race. We knew we had a steep mountain to climb and I am proud that you were never discouraged, that you never wavered, and that you helped to wage a political comeback that is unparalleled in the history of our city -- a comeback that was almost, but not complete.

I know you all share my disappointment that we have not won our campaign for a second term. I hope you share, as well, my sense of pride. For I am proud of you, and I remain proud of my city as well. I believe the last four years will be looked upon as a time when our city moved forward, and our people came first.

The challenge for continuing the momentum must now fall to mayor-elect, Ed Austin and his administration. I wish him the best, and offer him my pledge of cooperation and support.

Thank you all once again for your loyalty, your love, and your unwavering support. I will always treasure our association and look forward to continuing the closeness and friendship we have developed.

With sincere best wishes, and warm personal regards, I remain

Sincerely,

TOMMY HAZOURI
